

One-Act Play Festival 2013
Saturday Performance and Workshop Schedule

3 August 2013

9:00 - 10:00	Finding THE Story - 60 Minutes Avant-garde. Stream of Consciousness. Monologues. Historic Presentations. These are some of the theatre genres made for presentation by one or two persons. However, they often can be difficult for the audience because the "story" is lost inside the "art." This workshop is a look at the "story" form, and how it can, and often must, be developed so that the point of the theatre form is understood. This is an interactive workshop, come ready to participate! Conducted by Sheila Arnold, Teaching Artist
10:00 - 11:00	The Spoken Word - 60 Minutes A literary workshop designed to explore the history of our oral tradition through poetry, song and spirituality. Mr. Richardson starts by laying the foundation of our oral tradition by explaining the African concept of time through Sankofa, Sasa and Zamani. He goes on to explore everything from the African Griot, to china's Haiku Poets to Shakespeare, Paul Robeson, Martin L. King III, and the latest generation rappers and spoken word poets; Mr Richardson demonstrates and illustrates the art of the spoken word. Excellent for students interested in any genre of the spoken word; poetry, song writing, storytelling, theater and preaching. Conducted by Nathan Richardson, accomplished performance poet, published author & founder of Spiritual Concepts Publishing
11:00 - 12:00	Conversational Workshop - 60 Minutes Entitled "directing: tips ideas and quick thinking with Matt Friedman." Conducted by Matt Friedman - Web designer, writer, actor and director
